

Physiotherapist Position

MUDGE
NSW

About the Role

Mudgeephysio is seeking an experienced and dedicated Physiotherapist to join our team in Mudgee, NSW. This is a full-time or part time position, offering a competitive salary and the opportunity to work in a supportive, collaborative environment. As a Physiotherapist at Mudgeephysio, you will be responsible for providing high-quality, patient-centered care to our diverse client base, helping them to achieve their rehabilitation goals and improve their overall health and wellbeing.

What you'll be doing

- Conducting comprehensive patient assessments to identify treatment needs
- Developing and implementing tailored treatment plans to address patients' physical, functional and lifestyle goals
- Providing a range of physiotherapy interventions, including manual therapy, exercise prescription, and the use of specialised equipment
- Collaborating with other healthcare professionals to ensure a coordinated approach to patient care
- Maintaining detailed patient records and reporting on patient progress
- Contributing to the continuous improvement of our physiotherapy services

What we're looking for

- Degree in Physiotherapy or equivalent qualification
- Current AHPRA registration as a Physiotherapist
- Strong clinical reasoning and problem-solving skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Commitment to providing high-quality, patient-centered care
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a multidisciplinary team
